Innovatively designed for comfort and stability

Klip Xtreme continues to bring innovative options into its series of cordless stereo earphones. These tiny earphones feature the latest Bluetooth® wireless technology so you can enjoy your stereo music freely and with a more stable connection. The earphones stream audio from any compatible device within a range of 33ft from the audio source. The long-lasting batteries in the earphones provide up to 7 hours of music playback and approximately 120 hours of standby time on a single charge. Its portable magnetic case serves as a charging dock and is equipped with a high-capacity 330mAh lithium battery that can fully recharge both earphones twice, for a total of up to 21-hour extended and worry-free use. These ultracompact and lightweight earphones will deliver impressive bass-rich sound along with convenient music and call management, thanks to the multifunction button integrated in each earbud.
